“And how could you tell that they would make their attempt tonight?” I asked. “Well, when they closed their offices that was a sign that they cared no longer about Mr. Jabez Wilson’s presence—in other words, that they had completed their tunnel. But it was essential that they should use it soon, as it might be discovered, or the bullion might be removed. Saturday would suit them better than any other day, as it would give them two days for their escape. For all these reasons I expected them to come tonight.” “You reasoned it out beautifully,” I exclaimed in unfeigned admiration, “It is so long a chain, and yet every link rings true.”
