I heard sounds coming from the brushwood on my way home. I curiously walked over to take a look. It turned out to be five puppies. It looked like they were just born for days. Where was their mother? I originally wanted to move the puppies to a comfortable place, but I was afraid that their mother would not be able to find her babies. So I turned around and walked away, and I hoped that their mother would remember to come back to take care of her babies.
