The old man originally suffered from illness, and this way made his condition suddenly worse. He needed his wife to feed him every day, and even needed her to take care of him when he went to the toilet. They had no relatives by side. Although their life was difficult, they seemed to be sweeter than before.

Up to one day, the old man was confirmed to have cancer. Now, in addition to overcoming the inconvenient life, he also has to undergo physical therapy and the pain caused by illness.
