The news reports that Doctor Chang had passed away. Doctor Chang had worked in that hospital for thirty years. His sudden pass is sorely lamented by all. Doctor Chang, a lover of children, often played games with his patients. Every year at Christmas, he would dress up as Santa Claus to bring cheer and some small gifts to the sick children. In his youth, Doctor Chang had a girlfriend he loved very much. She was dead in a car accident. Because of this, Doctor Chang never married. Since he has no descendants, he has bequeathed his property to the Charity.
