Everybody wishes to get money so that he can maintain his livelihood. In other words, money is so useful that it is impossible for mankind to live without it. There is a saying: "Money can't get you everything, but without money you're nothing." In short, money is more powerful than anything else. Therefore, we can't waste money. It must be used for proper purposes. In addition to the habit of not spending money in the wrong way, we should also have good habits of saving.
