　　Yemen(葉門) faces the world's largest famine in decades "with millions of victims" if aid deliveries are not resumed, a senior UN(聯合國) official has warned. Mark Lowcock, the UN under-secretary general(副祕書長) for humanitarian affairs(人道主義事務), urged the Saudi-led coalition to lift its blockade of the conflict-torn country. On Monday, the coalition shut air, land and sea routes into Yemen after Houthi(胡塞) rebels fired a missile at Riyadh(利雅德). Saudi Arabia(沙烏地阿拉伯) said the blockade was needed to stop Iran(伊朗) sending weapons to the rebels.
