jealousy 忌妒

wild 瘋狂的
