Epimetheus（伊皮米修斯）formed the animals and gave each a special skill and form of protection. Prometheus（普羅米修斯）took his time molding man, and was left with no forms of protection since Epimetheus had already given them all away. Prometheus knew man needed some form of protection and asked Zeus（宙斯）if he could let man have fire. Zeus refused. Fire was only for the gods. Prometheus ignored Zeus and gave man fire anyway. For this, Prometheus was punished.
