One day, my mother asked me if I wanted to learn swimming. I couldn't wait to reply, "Yes! I thought about this long time ago." I like to play with water. If I learn how to swim, I can reduce the danger of playing with water. Every time the summer comes, I am always envious of that when I see everyone go to play at the beach. Because I can't swim, my mother always doesn't let me go. So I must seize the opportunity to learn swimming so that I can go to the beach with everyone.
