If you have only 24 hours left in your life, what do you want to do? What kind of mood do you have? Satisfy? No regrets? Or are you still reluctant and full of remorse? Do you still care about those people and things that have provoked you? How many things that you want in your life have you achieved? Are you satisfied with your life? In order to clearly see what you really want in your heart, you need some wisdom and courage. Because only you know the answer; no one can help you. If you want to know what you really want in your heart, you must learn to be honest with yourself and do not escape. Usually, the real answer does not come from the thinking of your brain, but comes from the real voice deep inside in your heart.
