1140210 高中職生中翻英短文翻譯參考答案

Most heroes are common people like you and me. They're not the superheroes in Marvel. But what makes them heroes? They have special courage and they are brave enough to help in an emergency while others may stand by. A hero sees what needs to be done and does it. All heroes have one thing in common. It's that they put someone else's safety ahead of their own.
